PASSAGE-1

Yasa was cunning and clever. In front of the captured dancing girls, he tortured their male companions and told the girls. "You were about to kill Prince Ashoka. You deserve death. Since you must die, why not speak the truth? May be, your punishment in hell will be less severe!"

The older one among the dancing girls said, "Listen to us with compassion. We don't fear hell, since we don't know how that place is. But we fear torture and death. We can be of some help to you if you grant us pardon. We will speak the truth, "First speak it. Then it will be for the prince to decide your fate,” said Yasa. “We followed the prince right from Patliputra. We are courteousness and we work for the man who pays us. We are not prince Ashoka’s enemies,” said the girl. “And who’re his enemies?” First promise us that you’ll spare our lives,” said the elder girl. “No bargain. Speak out the truth or you die!” shouted Yasa. “We were given the task of killing Prince Ashoka by the Crown Prince himself.” The girl blurted out. The two girls spoke in detail how they were given a thousand gold coins and a diamond ring each and were promised much more after they accomplished their task.

The people they named and the rings they showed left Yasa and Ashoka in no doubt about the veracity of their confession. After they had been thoroughly examined, Ashoka ordered his soldiers, to take the girls away and do what is necessary. The girls raised their tied hands to their forehead. “Where you wished to send me!” snapped Ashoka. “Oh no!” Shrieked out the girls. “Don’t cry, unfortunate sisters. Pray to the Budha, and his compassion will save you”. It was Vidisha. She had just entered the tent.

“Don’t give them any false hope!” said Yasa. “Is it I who am giving them hope? Remember, you had promised to spare their lives!” said Vidisha. “How can you speak such nonsense Vidisha?” challenged Yasa. “Didn’t you say that they should speak out the truth or die? How can you go back on your word?” rejoined Vidisha. “Wonderful!” Ashoka clapped his hands, smiling. “How lucky you are, Yasa, to have a sister like this?” “I shall gladly pay it, if it’s within my capacity. “Tell me what it is”, Vidisha waited for a reply. “It is a heavy price, so heavy that I am scared of quoting it.” said Ashoka haltingly and almost blushing. “But I will confide it to Yasa.” A brief flash of smile played on Yasa’s lips.
